The Receptionist will acknowledge receipt of papers by signing his name in full in ink, with date and time on the Receipt Book / Challan.

He will open the envelopes, except those bearing a security classification (Top Secret, Secret or Confidential) and those that are marked personal; check for enclosures, if any, mentioned therein and make a note on the face of the letter of any item found missing.

Registration of Dak: The communications so received will be entered in the 'Central Diary' maintained in the format given in Appendix 1

The unopened covers / communications will be stamped on their outer covers and diarised without being opened, on the basis of whatever particulars are available outside.

The S.No. of the communication entered in the Central Diary will be referred to as its 'Diary Number'.

The 'Diary Number' will start afresh from Serial No. (1) on the first working day of every calendar year.

A rubber stamp in the format given below will be affixed on the communications entered in the Diary Register and relevant entries made in the spaces provided therein:

NRRDA

• Distribution and marking of Dak: The 'Dak' after it has been diarised and stamped will be referred to as 'Receipts'. All such 'Receipts' shall be passed on to the Personal / Office staff of the officer concerned who will initial the Central Diary Register (with date) in token of its receipt. The officer shall initial the papers (with date) marking them to the L-2/L-3 officers concerned, along with directions, wherever necessary, on the line of action to be taken. After the marking is done, all papers finally come to the L-2/L-3 officer or the diarist who hands over the papers to an official of the Division for diarising.

The person entrusted with the receipt of papers in each Division (the Diarist) will again enter all Receipts / papers coming from the Reception Desk, or otherwise, in the Diary maintained in the Division. Format of the Division Diary is at Appendix - 2.

The papers listed below need not be diarised in the Division Diary:

□ FILING OF PAPERS

A proper filing system is essential for convenient identification, sorting, storage and retrieval of papers.

- Opening of Files: All files in the Agency shall be opened under the Functional Filing System as described below:
 - o Functional Filing System.

Functional Filing System is an alphanumeric system and a file number under this consists of the following elements:

- > A single alphabet representing the Basic Head followed by a hyphen as the Separator.
- A 2-digit group of Arabic numerals representing Primary Head followed by zero as the Separator.
- A 2-digit group of Arabic numerals identifying the Secondary Head followed by a slant stroke as a Separator.
- Serial number of the file opened during the year under the Secondary Head, followed by a slant stroke as the Separator.
- A 4-digit number representing the year, followed by a hyphen as the Separator.
- \succ A group of abbreviating letters representing the Division / Section opening the file.

A list of Basic/Functional Heads, Primary Heads and Secondary Heads for use in the National Rural Roads Agency is at Appendix - 3. In this list Headings preceded by letters of alphabet are the Basic / Functional Heads. The Primary and Secondary Heads have been identified by headings of their respective columns.

Example: Suppose the Accounts Section need to open a file about Grant of Overtime Allowance. A reference to the list of Heads will show that this subject comes under the:

Functional Head: G. Finance, Budget, Cash & Accounts,

Primary Head: 14. Allowances, and Secondary Head: 18. Overtime allowance.

Supposing further that they have already opened 5 files about the Overtime Allowance during this year. This will thus be the sixth file on the subject in the year 2004. The file No. in this case will, therefore, be structured as: G – 14018/ 6 /2004 –Accts.:-

G = Basic/Functional Head,

Hyphen as separator,

14 = Primary Head,

0 = Separator

18 = Secondary Head

/ = Separator

6 = S.No. of file opened on the subject this year

/ = Separator

2004 = Year in which file is being opened

- = Hyphen as Separator

Accts. = Abbreviated name of the Section.

A record of files opened in a calendar year will be kept in the File Register as per the Administration Division format in Appendix - 4. The File Register shall be maintained centrally in the Finance & in the custody of an official to be designated for the purpose. Whenever a new file is to be opened, the officer in whose custody the Register is maintained will be requested to make the necessary entries in the Register and issue the file number. The title of the proposed file will be indicated in the request. In case a similar titled file already exists the request may be returned with a note to this effect.

File Numbers shall be allotted out of the list of Major/Minor Heads in Appendix - 3. Each of these Heads shall be allotted separate page(s) in the File Register.

- Pre-requisites for opening of new files: While filing of papers in the right file is important, opening of too many files on the same subject should be avoided. Similarly, a file should not become the repository of a large number of unconnected papers. As such files should be opened on the following principles:
 - Files should be opened simply on a subject, e.g., 'Appointment of PTAs' in case the file is required over a number of years and not too many papers are expected in a year. Generally policy related files will be of this type.
 - In case a large number of papers on the subject are expected each year, files may be opened for each year separately, e.g., 'Training under Word Bank', 'TA for 2003-2004'.
 - Sometimes correspondence takes place with a number of State Agencies on the same subject. The L-3/L-2 officer concerned should consciously decide whether files should be opened year wise for all States, or State wise, or even if volume of correspondence is very high, year wise and State wise. Program related files are likely to be of this type, e.g., 'PMGSY 2004-05 in West Bengal'.
 - Since efficient file classification is of utmost importance the L-3/L-2 officers may consult the Head of Division whenever in doubt.
 - o No new files need be opened for dealing with receipts of a purely routine nature. Such papers can either be returned to the originator after recording a reply on the Receipt itself or, being unlikely to generate further correspondence, can be placed in a miscellaneous file to be destroyed at the end of 3 months after expiry of the calendar year.
- File Structure: The file shall comprise of two parts, viz.,
 - o Correspondence portion containing 'Receipts' and office copies of letters issued from the file.
 - o Notes portion, i.e., the portion containing notes or minutes recorded on a case.

In the Correspondence portion the papers will be tagged from right to left, the latest being at the top. The note sheets in the Noting portion will be tagged from left to right the latest being at the top.

Routine Receipts and Issues (e.g., reminders, acknowledgements) and routine notes shall not be allowed to clutter up the file. They will be placed below the file in a separate cover and destroyed when they have served their purpose.

When either of the Notes/Correspondence portion of the file exceeds 100 pages, the file will be got stitched and marked as Vol - I. Further papers on the subject will be kept in a new volume of the same file designated as Vol.-II.

Movement of Files: Every time a file moves from one Division to another (or to DG's Office) or outside to the Ministry, its movement shall be recorded by making appropriate entries in the File Movement Register to be maintained in the format prescribed (Appendix - 5).

A reference to this Register should be able to indicate the whereabouts of a file at any particular point of time.

The File Movement Register shall be maintained centrally in the Finance & Administration Division of the Agency and will remain in the charge and custody of the official entrusted with the function. To enable entries to be made, all files being sent from the Division to another Division / DG / Ministry shall be sent to this official, who will make the entry in the register, and corresponding entry on the note sheet of the file [giving the serial number of the entry in the Movement Register and its date on the margin of the note sheet thus: 118 / 23-8-04]

At the end of each month the custodian of the File Movement Register shall prepare a return in the following format indicating files which have not returned even after expiry of 7 days, and put it up for information of Director (F&A):

Number of Files in movement

< 7 days	7 – 14 days	More than 14 days
(No. of files)	(No. of files)	File No.	Pending with
1	2	3	4

□ ACTION ON RECEIPTS

Receipts are to be processed: Wherever decision has to be taken based on the content of the receipt, the issue should be identified and processed to enable proper decision making.

- General Principles: All action on Receipts shall be result oriented leading to correct and speedy decision making. The L-3 / L-2 officer who first deals with the papers (Dealing officer) shall:
 - ✓ Go through the receipts and separate urgent receipts from the rest.
 - ✓ Deal with the urgent receipts first.
 - Check enclosures and, if any are found missing, initiate action to obtain them preferably by telephonic or e-mail contact.
 - ✓ See whether any other Division / Officer is also concerned with any part or aspect of a receipt and, if so, send copies or relevant extracts to them for necessary action.
 - ✓ Bring the receipt on to the file, if one already exists dealing with the subject, or open a new file.

- Page Numbering and Docketing: A Receipt, on being added to the file, will first be assigned page number(s). For this purpose, each page will be separately numbered on the upper right hand corner, consecutively. Pages left blank or duplicate copies of the same receipt need not be page numbered. Printed documents with their own page numbering may be given a single number. The Receipt will then be docketed. Docketing is the process of assigning a Serial Number to the Receipt and then entering this Serial Number, Diary number and page number of the Receipt on the notes portion of the file. Any remarks that an officer might have recorded on the receipt relating to how the paper should be processed are also to be reproduced below that
- Recording of Notes: The Dealing officer will then go through all the relevant papers, identify and examine the issues involved and record a note suggesting further course of action.

For cases of a repetitive nature Standard Process Sheets or Skeleton Notes should be developed and used. A Standard Process Sheet not only saves time and effort, it also acts as a checklist ensuring that no important point has been left out inadvertently or otherwise. Wherever used, this forms part of the notes and no separate note shall be recorded in the file. Skeleton Note is another device for processing routine and repetitive cases where the line of action is well known and settled. This is in the form of a standardized narrative note with suitably placed blank spaces for filling in the particulars concerning that case.

A specimen format each of a Standard Process Sheet and Skeleton Note, devised for processing leave applications is at Appendix – 6 & 6A.

Where the line of action on a receipt is obvious, or is based on a clear protocol or practice and only a communication needs to issue, a reply may be prepared without recording an elaborate or detailed note, and submitted along with the file with a flag 'DFA' (Draft for Approval). Standard drafts of communications may be developed wherever feasible.

In cases where the issue needs to be examined in detail before a decision is taken, the officer handling the case will first:

- See whether all the statements, so far they are open to check, are correct.
- Point out mistakes, misstatements, missing data or information, if any.
- Draw attention, where necessary, to the statutory or customary procedures and point out the relevant law and rules.
- Furnish any additional / relevant data or information where available.
- State the questions for consideration and bring out clearly the points that require to be decided.
- Draw attention to precedents, if any available, and say whether they should be followed or ignored for reasons to be recorded.
- Evaluate relevant data and information; and
- Suggest, where possible, alternate course(s) of action for consideration.

The note so recorded would normally be structured on the following lines:

- Facts of the case.
- Nature of the problem /issues raised and their genesis.
- o Any supplementary information relevant to the case.
- o Guidelines / procedures relevant to the case and their applicability.
- Any precedents available and, if so, whether they should be followed and if not, why not?
- Views of other departments/organizations, if any, consulted.
- Options available and implications of following each of them.
- Most acceptable course of action and why?
- o The authority competent to pass final orders in the matter.

□ GUIDELINES FOR RECORDING NOTES

- Notes and orders will normally be recorded on note sheets. Both sides of the note sheet shall be used.
- ✓ All Notes will be concise and to the point. Lengthy notes are to be avoided.
- ✓ The contents of the papers being examined need only to be referred to, and need not be reproduced in the note.
- ✓ A note will be divided into serially numbered paragraphs of easy size, say ten lines each. The final paragraph should weigh the arguments and make recommendations for action.
- ✓ If the note refers to correspondence in the file, the page number shall be mentioned followed by '/c', e.g., 'p 37/c'. 'C' here stands for correspondence. Similarly if the reference is to an earlier page of the Notes, the reference will be to 'p 37/N'. The serial number of paragraph of the letter / note being referred to may be given.
- The reference to flags and slips on papers other than the original receipt (Paper Under Consideration or PUC) and the Fresh Receipt (FR) being processed is discouraged except when the file is to go to the Minister.
- ✓ The number of the file referred to will always be quoted in the body of the note. Similarly the number and date of orders, notifications, acts, rules and regulations, referred to will be quoted in the body of the notes, while the alphabetical slips used will be indicated in the margin.
- ✓ The Dealing officer will append his/her full signature with date on the right hand side of the note with name, designation and phone number.
- ✓ Relevant extracts of a rule or instruction cited in the note may be photocopied and placed on the file and referred to, rather than reproducing them in the notes.
- Copies of rules or other compilations referred to in a case should normally be put up with the file unless their copies are expected to be available with the officers to whom the case is being submitted.
- ✓ When passing orders or making suggestions the senior officer will confine his/her note to the actual points he/she proposes to make without repeating the points already covered in the - previous notes. If he/she agrees to the line of action suggested in the preceding note, he/she will merely append his/her signature.

- ✓ If any apparent errors or misstatements in a case have to be pointed out or if an opinion expressed therein has to be criticized, care should be taken to couch the observations in courteous and temperate language free from personal remarks.
- Calling for Information: It may sometimes become necessary to collect information from various sources, inside or outside the organization to facilitate disposal of a case. In such a situation, while sending out a circular letter to those concerned, it would be desirable to:

Identify – Source of information

Address - Only those who are concerned

Specify – The information required

Prescribe – A format where necessary

Request - 'Nil' Reports

Fix – Last date for sending replies

Compile – As you receive replies.

Where two or more Agencies / authorities are simultaneously consulted, the examination and, where necessary, tabulation of the replies will ordinarily be started as soon as replies begin to arrive and not held over till the receipt of all the replies or the expiry of the target date.

While the Dealing officer is expected to use his initiative in making suggestions on course of action, he may, in cases where the issue is complex or no precedent exists, consult his senior officer in order to expedite decision making.

- Modification of Notes: Senior officers, desiring to differ with, correct or modify a note recorded by a junior should do so by recording their own notes bringing out their views on the subject. Any replacement/ modification/ pasting over of the notes, which have already been recorded on a file, particularly when others have further noted upon the file, is not permitted. Much of this can be avoided if at receipt stage the senior officer gives clear directions or before dealing the L-3/L-2 officer discusses the case with senior officers, if required.
- Drafting of Letters: If the course of action is clear, the dealing officer shall also put up a draft of a letter (Draft for Approval or DFA) to the person / organization concerned. While approving or modifying the note the senior officer will also approve / modify the draft.

In cases where preparation of a draft reply has to follow approval of the note, the L-3/L-2 officer shall, on return of the file along with all the notes of the senior officers, read the notes carefully and ascertain the final decision. He shall then prepare the draft accordingly and put it up for approval to his senior officer who may approve it with or without modification. In complicated cases, he may also put it up to his senior officer. The approved draft will be initialled with date by the officer in whose name the letter is to issue and retained on the file for record.

After the draft has been approved, the L-3/L-2 dealing officer shall get it typed in fair, and put it up on the file for signatures or sign it himself if authorised. All such letters will be put up on the file itself, along with enclosures, after comparison with the approved draft. The name, designation, telephone number and e-mail address of the issuing office shall be clearly mentioned. The office copy of the letter shall be initialled with date and kept on the file.

In case identical letters are issued to a number of addressees, instead of retaining office copies in each case, one copy along with the complete list of addressees may be retained.

General guidelines on drafting of correspondence are given in Appendix - 7.

Issue of Communications: After the approved draft has been fair-typed, enclosures to accompany the communication, if any, shall be added before the fair copy is signed, unless the enclosures are too bulky. After signature the letter shall be given to the Dispatcher after recording his receipt (with signature, Dispatch No. and date) on the office copy. The dispatcher shall also record the receipt of the enclosures so that letters do not get dispatched without the requisite enclosures.

The office copy shall be placed in the file and docketed after it is given a serial number and a page number. On the notes portion of the file, the issue of the communication shall be recorded on the margin where the draft was approved, as follows: 'Issued on (date) at page No. ___'

• Dispatch: The Receptionist will function as the Dispatcher and shall maintain the 'Dispatch Register' in the format given in Appendix – 8.

The Dispatcher shall accept all communications for dispatch received from the Divisions, enter them in the Dispatch Register after checking that the address is complete and enclosures mentioned have been attached. He shall then record the Dispatch number and date on the office copy of the letter and return it to the Division.

All communications and / or files meant for the Ministry of Rural Development shall be sent only through an official messenger.

The time of dispatch shall always be noted by the Dispatcher in the Messenger Book. (Appendix -9) The recipients will similarly be required to indicate the time of receipt at their end.

On his return the Messenger Book shall be checked by the Despatcher to confirm that all papers have been delivered to, and acknowledged by, the addressee.

All communications to other destinations shall ordinarily be sent through normal postal channels. Expensive facilities like Speed Post, Courier etc. shall be avoided. They may be used only for urgent and important communications and that too under specific directions of the Dealing officer concerned.

A record of the communications dispatched through post / Speed Post / Courier etc., and the value of stamps used shall he maintained by the Despatcher in the Despatch Register described in Appendix - 8.

When a communication is being sent by registered post (acknowledgement due), the number of the communication will also be written on the 'acknowledgement card' so that, when received back, it can be sent to the Division concerned.

- Accessibility of Information: Free flow of information within the system is necessary for proper decision making. The following steps may be taken for this purpose:
 - All important communications being issued containing general guidelines etc. should be uploaded to the website by sending the electronic text to the IT Unit (nrrda@pmgsy.nic.in) as a mail attachment.
 - A copy of all important communications likely to be required in future (whether issued or received) should be endorsed to the Division's own Guard Files (as described below) and all other Divisional Heads who need to be kept informed.
- Guard Files: Each Division shall open Guard Files on important subjects in its charge. Copies of all important documents received or issued shall be filed in the Guard File. The maintenance of the Guard Files will be the personal responsibility of the L-3/L-2 officers concerned. Divisional Head may usefully maintain their own Guard files in addition.

Standing Guard Files will be prepared on 'type' subjects dealt with by a particular Dealing Officer like Pay, Allowances, Quality Control, Grants etc. and will comprise of the three parts listed below. Each of these will be in a separate folder but all of them will be kept together at all times:

- ✓ Part-A: A running summary of the principles and policy relating to the subject with file number(s) and date of relevant decision or orders quoted in the margin against each of them.
- ✓ Part B: Copies (or relevant extracts) of the decisions or orders referred to In Part A arranged in chronological order; and
- ✓ Part C: Model forms of communication to be used at different stages in the disposal of a case.

The Standing Guard Files

- ✓ provide new officers with the background, policy and procedures on the subject;
- √ facilitate quick submission and disposal of cases`;
- √ help in locating previous papers having a bearing on the subject.

ANNUAL CONFIDENTIAL REPORTS

☐ SCOPE:

These Rules shall apply to all whole time employees of the National Rural Roads Development Agency whether serving on deputation or otherwise (excepting those provided by a Private Service Provider under a contract).

□ GENERAL:

- A Confidential Report shall be recorded every year on performance of all persons covered under these Rules and working in the Agency on deputation or otherwise.
- The Report shall be initiated in the first week of April each year and will relate to the period covered by the preceding financial year.
- Only one Report will normally be recorded for a particular year. But if there is a change of officers during the course of a year two or more reports may also be written for the same year by different Reporting Authorities. Each report will then indicate precisely the period to which it relates.
- An officer transferred during the middle of the reporting year shall write the Confidential Reports of his subordinates in respect of the period up to the date of his transfer provided the period is at least 6 months.
- The Reports shall be submitted to the Reviewing Authority who may add his own remarks, where necessary.
- Reporting Authority shall abstain from writing the Confidential Report of an employee if they are both related to each other. In such a case the Reviewing Authority shall act as the Reporting Authority.
- A Reporting Authority who retires or otherwise demits office may record the report on his subordinates within a month of his retirement or demission of office.
- A Reviewing Authority shall not, however, review the Confidential Report after his retirement.

□ REPORTING & REVIEWING AUTHORITIES:

 The following will be the Reporting / Reviewing Authorities for the purpose of recording of Confidential Reports in the National Rural Roads Development Agency:

5.	SAO/FO	Director (F & A)	Director General, NRRDA
6.	Supporting Staff	Joint Director / SAO/ FO / Deputy Director /Assistant Director	Director (F&A) / Director / Joint Director

 Both the Reporting and the Reviewing Authority should have seen the work of the officer reported upon for a continuous period of at least 3 months during the period covered by the Confidential Report.

☐ TIME SCHEDULE:

 The time schedule for various stages in the process of writing of Confidential Reports, as given below shall be strictly adhered to by all concerned.

S.No.	Nature of Action	Date by which to be completed	Report to be completed by Reviewing Officer and sent to Administration Division
1	Distribution of blank Confidential Report forms to all concerned (i.e., officers to be reported upon)	31st March
2.	Submission of self appraisal to Reporting Authority (where applicable)	15th April
3.	Submission of report by the Reporting Authority to the Reviewing Authority.
	 Where self appraisal is not prescribed 	21st April	7th May
	 Where self appraisal is prescribed 	7th May	23rd May
	 Where officer reported upon is himself a Reporting Authority for subordinates under him 	22nd May	5th June

 The Administration Division shall keep a watch on the progress in completion of Confidential Reports at different stages.

☐ FORMS TO BE USED

- NRRDA is staffed by officers on deputation from the Central / State Governments. Confidential Reports of such officers shall, therefore, be recorded in the formats used in their respective parent organizations.
- The Agency has also devised a set of its own formats (Appendix 23 A to D) that may be used for recording of Confidential Reports if considered necessary at any stage.

A copy of the report recorded on an officer on deputation with the Agency will be forwarded to his parent department for their information and record.

□ POINTS TO BE OBSERVED IN WRITING OF CONFIDENTIAL REPORTS:

- Each item in the Confidential Report form shall be filled with due care and attention.
- Assessment shall be confined to the performance as noticed during the period of report only.
- The objective of recording Confidential Reports is to enable the officer reported upon to realize his true potential. It is not intended to be a faultfinding process.
- While filling up the form of Report all answers shall be in a narrative form. Tick marks and dashes shall not be used.
- The degree of stress and strain in any post may also be taken into consideration during appraisal and may be commented upon where relevant.
- The item relating to Public Relations needs to be filled up only where the duties of the officer reported upon bring him in contact with the public.
- The self-appraisal should be precise, to the point and should refer only to the areas of responsibility of the officer reported upon. It should be confined to the space allocated in the form.
- Confidential Reports, as a rule, should contain only a general appreciation of the character, conduct and qualities of the officer reported upon. Any reference to a specific incident, if at all, should be made only by way of illustration to support any adverse comments of a general nature.
- Any Warning issued as a result of disciplinary proceedings shall also be mentioned in the Report.
- Confidential Report folders shall not contain any papers other than the order of punishment, order on appeals and/or the letter communicating the adverse remarks as the case may be.

☐ GRADING OF PERFORMANCE

- A grading of 'Outstanding' shall be awarded only for exceptional performance of the officer being reported upon and the grounds for doing so shall also be brought out.
- All the remarks recorded should be specific and not vague. They should be based on established facts and not on mere suspicion or hearsay.
- The report should give a clear opinion on character, integrity, industry etc. of the officer.
- The Reporting Authority shall not hesitate in recording adverse remarks where justified.
- But when an adverse remark has to be recorded in respect of an official having a consistently good record, some explanation for it shall always be furnished.

☐ FILLING UP THE COLUMN RELATING TO INTEGRITY

- If the officer's integrity is beyond doubt, it may be so stated and his integrity certified.
- If there is any doubt or suspicion the column should be left blank and action taken as under:

- ✓ A separate secret note explaining the doubts and reasons therefor should be recorded and sent together with the Confidential Report to the next superior officer who will ensure that the follow up action is taken expeditiously.
- ✓ If the doubts or suspicions get cleared subsequently, the officer's integrity should be certified and an entry to this effect made in the Confidential Report.
- ✓ If the doubts or suspicions are confirmed, this shall also be recorded and duly communicated to the officer concerned.
- ✓ But when the misgivings can neither be cleared nor confirmed, the officer's conduct shall be kept under watch for sometime more and action taken as indicated above thereafter.
- Where it is not possible for any reason either to certify the integrity or to record the secret note, the Reporting Authority may record either that he has not seen the officer's work for sufficient time to form a definite judgment or that he has heard nothing against the officer, as the case may be.

□ COMMUNICATION OF ADVERSE REMARKS:

- Any adverse remarks in the Confidential Report shall be communicated in writing to the officer concerned within one month of their being recorded. A copy of the communication so sent shall be kept in the Confidential Report file.
- Only such adverse entries as are accepted by the Accepting Authority need to be communicated.
- While communicating adverse entries a brief resume of any positive observations about the officer, which may have been recorded, shall also be conveyed.
- The communication shall be worded in a manner that it does not produce a sense of resentment in the officer reported upon. It will also be ensured that the identity of the officer making remarks conveyed does not get disclosed.
- The grading awarded on the basis of general remarks in the report, and any remarks about his physical defects need not be conveyed.

□ REPRESENTATIONS AGAINST ADVERSE REMARKS:

- Only one representation against adverse remarks should be allowed within one month of their communication. While communicating the adverse remarks to the employee, the time limit will be brought to his notice.
- The representation will lie to the Accepting Authority or to the authority immediately superior to it, if any, or to the Reporting Authority.
- Adverse remarks should not be deemed to be operative till any representation filed within the prescribed time limit remains pending.
- However, there would be no bar to taking cognizance of the adverse remarks if no representation is made within the prescribed time or, if made, has been finally disposed of.
- Representations against adverse remarks shall be decided preferably within 3 months from the date of their submission.

- If the competent authority does not find any grounds justifying intervention, the representation may be rejected and the petitioner informed accordingly.
- But if it is felt that the remarks appealed against are too harsh and need to be toned down a separate entry to this effect, with proper attestation, shall be made in the report without making any alteration in the original entries.
- Where the adverse remarks are found to deserve expunction the competent authority shall order accordingly. Such remarks shall then be effectively obliterated both in the Confidential Report as well as in the office copy of the letter communicating those remarks. A copy of the order for expunction of remarks will also be kept in the Confidential Report file.

PURCHASING THROUGH TENDERS

1. Types of Tenders

- a. Single Tender means an invitation to tender sent to a single party. A single tender enquiry may be issued to a particular firm for supplying articles of a proprietary nature or when the competent authority is satisfied that only that particular firm manufactures the stores required.
- b. Two Envelope System: When suppliers are required to submit their quotations in two separate sealed envelopes, one containing technical details and the other quoting price, the system followed is referred to as the 'Two Envelope System'. Both bids are to be invited simultaneously with the same date and time of receipt. Both the tenders one containing the technical offer and the other the price will be submitted in separate covers, duly marked 'Technical Bid' and 'Price Bid' and placed in one main cover.
- c. Open Tender means an invitation to tender issued by public advertisement.
- d. Limited Tender: When the bids are solicited only from a limited number of reputed parties, out of a panel of pre-qualified suppliers, the system is known as the Limited Tender system. This system is adopted when the number of prospective suppliers is unusually large. The purchase officer can thus limit the enquiry to a few selected suppliers on the panel, preferably by rotation, so as to ensure that all firms in the panel get a fair chance to compete for the business.

This system is also adopted when the requirement is urgent or where main likely sources of supply are known.

e. Pre-qualified Tender: Where quality and technical specifications are extremely important and it is necessary to rule out non-serious bids, tenders may be invited in two stages. In the first stage offers or expressions of interest may be invited on the basis of criteria to be communicated. After technical evaluation, financial bids may be invited only from those who qualify as per the criteria.

2. Notice for inviting Tenders.

A. The notice inviting tenders should state:

- The place where and the time when the detailed tender documents can be seen and the blank forms of tender obtained; also the amount, if any, to be paid for such forms of tender. In case of Limited Tenders this may not be necessary.
- The place where, the date on which and the time when the tenders are to be submitted and are to be opened.
- The amount of earnest or deposit money to accompany the tender; the amount and the nature of security deposit required in the case of the accepted tender.
- The authority competent to accept or reject the tender.
- Authority to reject any or all of the tenders received without the assignment of a reason should always be reserved and this should be expressly stated in the advertisement.

- Any attempt at negotiation, direct or indirect, on the part of a tenderer with the authority to whom he has submitted the tender or the tender accepting authority will render the tender liable to exclusion from consideration.
- B. In case of Open Tenders the notice and details may be put up on website and on the office Notice Board also.

C. Detailed Tender Document:

The offer to be received from the suppliers is based on the information given and called for in the Tender Enquiry. This document, therefore, needs to be prepared with utmost care, setting out in unambiguous terms the requirements of the purchaser as to the quantity, specifications, quality, warranty/guarantee/ maintenance requirements, delivery, destination etc. and any other information which may be helpful to the tenderer in submission of the offer. It should normally contain the following:

- File No. & date of issue.
- Complete description of the item(s) required.
- Identification No. / Specification No. of the item & source(s) from where it can be obtained.
- Quantity required (If under a rate contract, approximate total quantity as well as quantity per lot)
- · Warranty / Guarantee / maintenance supports conditions.
- Installation conditions (in case of equipment)
- · Date by which required
- Consignee
- Shelf life (in case of shelf life items like torch cells, Paints, Films etc.)
- Inspection instructions
- · Packing instructions
- · Dispatch instructions
- Place of delivery
- Terms of delivery
- Security deposits
- · Applicability of taxes (rates of taxes, whether inclusive or not to be specified)
- Terms of payment
- Date up to which the quotation should remain valid.

D. Receipt of Tenders:

A separate locked box with a slit for putting bid envelopes shall be kept at the Reception with appropriate labels, during the period for invitation of tenders. The box shall be brought before the authority inviting tenders as soon as time for receipt of tenders is over. The authority shall seal the box and affix his signatures on the seal. The box shall be opened only in the presence of the officer/ Committee evaluating the tenders who shall, before opening the bids, count the envelopes received, write the serial number on each envelope (e.g., if six bids are received they will be numbered 1/6, 2/6 etc.) and only then proceed to open the envelopes.

Bids received after the scheduled date and time shall be received by the Receptionist who will record the date and time of receipt and bring all such envelopes to the authority inviting tenders. The authority shall write 'Late Tender' on the envelope and keep it in custody unopened.

E. Opening of Tenders

- (1) The Tender Opening Officer or Tender Opening Committee, where one has been formed, should:
 - a. Open only the quotations that are received within time from authorized sources.
 - b. Allow representative of only those firms who have quoted to be present. Their authority letters may also be checked, if necessary.
 - c. Prepare a list of participating representatives of the firms and obtain their signatures.
 - d. Open all covers in public.
 - e. Read out the important entries.
 - f. Encircle all entries wherein cutting and overwriting has been made, in red ink.
 - g. Attach the envelopes and write the serial number on the tender. Sign all pages of each quotation, including annexures.
 - h. Prepare a comparative statement of tenders received in the format prescribed with tender-wise findings on each item/ specification (see 'F' below). The prices shall be given alongside in case of single envelope system, with taxes, terms of delivery, payment, warranty etc. all being shown separately.
 - i. Put it up to the tender accepting authority along with the file and quotations duly filed and page numbered. A short proceedings of the Committee, noting out qualifying tenders duly signed by all members of the Committee shall be placed in the file.
- (2) Additional guidelines to be followed in the Two Envelope System:
 - a. The technical bids should be taken up and opened first following the procedure at (1) above, on the date prescribed for opening of tenders. Where samples have been asked for these shall also be numbered and signed similarly. The covers containing price bids should be kept together in sealed envelope in safe custody. These will be opened only after the technical evaluation is complete, on a date specified and made known to the qualifying tendering firms.
 - b. Such of the technical bids as are found incomplete or indicate major deviations, shall be treated as 'non-responsive' without giving any further opportunity to the tendering firm to rectify the defects/deficiencies.
 - c. Where the Technical Bid can be interpreted as qualifying, but clarification is needed to avoid disputes, a written communication may be issued with the approval of the competent authority for such clarification within a time to be specified.

- d. A Technical Comparative Chart shall be prepared indicating the responsiveness on each item/ specifications. In case alternative specification is given it shall be clearly stated as to how it meets or does not meet the required specification.
- e. Where samples have been asked for, a separate chart will be prepared, indicating the qualifying samples.
- f. A technical report shall be drawn up and signed by members of the Committee, indicating the qualifying offers. The Technical bids, comparative statement and the Report shall be put up on file for approval along with the samples where practicable.

F. Evaluation of Price Bids.

The bids in case of single envelope system and the price bids of qualifying tenderers in case of two envelope system will be evaluated in a comparative statement. Price bids of non-qualified tenderers shall be kept unopened in an envelope in safe custody till audit is completed. A Comparative Statement of price bids opened shall be prepared for each item separately in the format given below.

 from public moneys, as a person of ordinary prudence would exercise in respect of expenditure of his own money.
- The expenditure should not be prima facie more than the occasion demands.
- No authority should exercise its powers of sanctioning expenditure to pass an order, which will be directly or indirectly to its own advantage.
- Expenditure from public moneys should not be incurred for the benefit of a particular person or a section of the people, unless:
 - o A claim for the amount could be enforced in a court of law, or
 - o The expenditure is in pursuance of a recognized policy or custom.
- The responsibility of and accountability of every authority delegated with financial powers to procure any item or service on official account is total and indivisible.

- The authority concerned is expected to have the public interest uppermost in its mind while making a procurement decision. This responsibility is not discharged merely by selection of the cheapest offer but must conform to the following yardsticks of financial propriety: -
 - ✓ whether the offers have been invited in accordance with the rules of the Agency and after following a fair and reasonable procedure in the prevailing circumstances.
 - ✓ Whether the authority is satisfied that the selected offer will adequately meet the requirement for which it is being procured.
 - ✓ Whether the price on offer is reasonable and consistent with the quality required.
 - ✓ Whether the offer being accepted is the most appropriate one taking all relevant facts into account and in keeping with the standards of financial propriety.
 - ✓ Wherever called for, the concerned authority must place on record in precise terms, the considerations which weighed with it while taking the procurement decision.
